HOWDEN

WELCOME TO

A thriving market town in the East Riding of Yorkshire, Howden's character and charm owes much to its early royal connections. William the Conqueror gave the town to the Prince Bishops of Durham whose influence is evident in Howden's glorious Minster which continues to serve as the parish church, and Bishops Manor, now a popular venue.

This charming town has all the ingredients for a great place to live, not least for its community, connectivity and commercial outlook. Regardless of your stage in life whether you are upsizing, downsizing or simply starting out, you will find your perfect home at Saddlers Grange.

A HISTORIC TOWN WITH A MODERN APPROACH

Living in Howden, you would be in a thriving part of The East Riding of Yorkshire. Nearby Goole, on the junction of the rivers Don and Ouse, is still a working inland port and Hull, York and Selby are all within easy striking distance. Howden has always been known for its commercial enterprise (Howden was once home to the country's largest horse fair) and with its proximity to the motorway and rail network, it continues to attract well-known businesses. Neither is the town short of famous connections: the author Nevil Shute lived here while based at RNAS Howden where he worked with Barnes Wallis, the inventor of the bouncing bomb of Dambusters' fame, to develop the R100 airship.

JOIN A THRIVING COMMUNITY

Vicar Lane

'Fire' Sculpture, Howden

PA Media Group, Howden

Like many market towns in this area, much of Howden's charm lies in its cobbled streets and Georgian and Victorian architecture. It boasts an active Civic Society which has helped to preserve the town's considerable heritage, not least by the creation of the Blue Plaque trail commemorating the town's historically significant buildings. But perhaps the jewel in Howden's crown is the architectural gem of the Shire Hall that hosts a range of events including live music, comedy and cinema screenings, contributing to an active, lively community. But that is not all. Howden railway station, just outside the town, has direct connections with both Hull, 2017 City of Culture, which is only 30 miles away and York, which lies 20 miles to the north.

But it is not just the towns, cities and villages that attract. Howden, on the edge of the Yorkshire Wolds is the gateway to exploring some of Britain's most iconic countryside. The rich ecology of the area is typified by Howden Marsh Nature Reserve, the perfect place for a stroll and a spot of birdwatching. For those with a passion for aircraft, The Real Aeroplane Club looks after a historic collection at Brighton Airfield, a former RAF bomber base. Further afield, you can spend time exploring the market towns of the East Riding, including Beverley or take a tour around the Blue Flag Beaches such as Bridlington.

HOW TO PURCHASE

Buying a new Lovell home couldn't be easier. Follow our guide and you'll be home in no time!

CHOOSE AND RESERVE

Secure your new home with a reservation fee which goes towards the total purchase price. It's then reserved in your name while the legal processes are completed.

KEEPING THINGS MOVING

Pass our Sales Executive your solicitor's details so that we can send on the contract documents. Arrange your mortgage if you need one. You can do this yourself or we can put you in touch with an Independent Mortgage Advisor to help.

EXCHANGING CONTRACTS

Once you've had your formal mortgage offer, your solicitor will inform you when it's time to exchange contracts. You will now pay your deposit, which will be sent to us with your signed contract.

NEARLY THERE

Under the terms of the contract we need to allow time for financial completion. Once this has happened, we will ask your solicitor to request funds and pay the balance of the purchase price. The deeds are transferred into your name and you now own your new Lovell home!

MOVING IN

We will arrange for your meters to be read on the day of legal completion. Our Sales Executive will hand you the keys and a handover certificate.
